

Colorado Model United Nations Code of Conduct

The following codes have been designed for the health, safety, and well-being of each participant of Colorado Model United Nations. Complete compliance with these codes is expected of each participant. Failure to follow this Code of Conduct could lead to dismissal from the program. In the case of dismissal, program fees are non-refundable.

1. All delegates are required to participate in the entire schedule of activities and should report to each scheduled activity promptly at the designated time.
2. There is to be no smoking, drinking of alcoholic beverages or use of non-prescription drugs in private or public. Violation of this code leads to IMMEDIATE DISMISSAL from Colorado Model United Nations.
3. Dress should be in good taste at all times. Delegates are required to wear their native outfit or business attire to all scheduled activities with the following exceptions: Casual dress in good taste can be worn to dinner & Game Night. Shoes must be worn at all times.
4. Curfew is stated on the CO-MUN Daily Schedule and must be followed. Delegates must be in their rooms at the designated time on the CO-MUN Daily Schedule. Delegates should not leave their assigned rooms during curfew, except for a hotel emergency. Violation of this code leads to immediate dismissal from CO-MUN.
5. Noise in the hotel halls and rooms MUST be kept to a minimum. Music and television must be kept to an acceptable level. Model behavior is expected of each delegate. Rooms receiving warnings for loud noise or disturbances are reported to the adult advisors and chaperones each morning. Failure to follow these warnings may lead to dismissal from CO-MUN.
6. Roughplay such as pillow fighting is prohibited. Delegates are directly responsible for any and all damages to their assigned rooms during CO-MUN.
7. Delegates are NOT permitted in rooms other than their assigned rooms, unless invited to enter another room by the delegates of that room. Delegates are NOT permitted to enter rooms of the opposite sex for any reason. Violation of this code will lead to immediate dismissal from CO-MUN.
8. Delegates must respect the authority of the advisors, chaperones, officers and staff of NW BOCES at all times.
9. Delegates should exhibit proper behavior in the hotel while moving from room to room and while moving to various locations of activities. Proper behavior is expected at all times.

These Codes are in place for each participant. If a problem occurs regarding one of these codes or any other problem regarding participant behavior, that problem is referred directly to the school advisor for resolution following school policy and regulations. The School advisor is responsible for any disciplinary action resulting from participant behavior. We will refer all situations directly to the school advisor for resolution or action.
